Marketable Skills

Marketable skills prepare students for success in a variety of professional settings. Developed through academic coursework, co-curricular engagement, and extracurricular involvement, these skills include communication, critical thinking, teamwork, ethical reasoning, adaptability, and digital literacy. Whether directly related to a student's major or serving as complementary strengths, marketable skills enhance career readiness and reflect TWU's commitment to producing graduates who are prepared to thrive in today's dynamic workforce.

1. Organize and communicate ideas effectively.
2. Engage in critical reasoning about social and political problems.
3. Systematically review and evaluate scholarship in a range of areas of inquiry related to womanist/feminist and multicultural theories.
