 Marketable Skills

Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board’s 60x30 Strategic Plan (http://www.60x30tx.com/) as, “Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities.”

1. Organize and communicate ideas effectively.
2. Engage in critical, analytical reasoning about social/political problems or theoretical issues.
3. Systematically research, review, and evaluate research and scholarship in a range of areas of inquiry.
4. Construct theories and methods for engagement in social, cultural, political, and intellectual areas on behalf of social justice.
