Marketable Skills

Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's 60x30 Strategic Plan (https://reportcenter.highered.texas.gov/agency-publication/miscellaneous/thecb-60x30-strategic-plan/) as, "Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities."

a. Apply womanist/feminist and multicultural theories to social-justice issues, research questions, and teaching techniques.
b. Engage in critical, analytical, and intuitive reasoning about social/political problems or theoretical issues.
c. Produce effective, well-written prose that adopts an appropriate tone; precise and rich language; and careful, thoughtful organization.
d. Systematically research, review, and evaluate research and scholarship in a range of areas of inquiry.
