

ADMISSION TO CANDIDACY

A student is admitted to candidacy for the master's degree when:

- a. the degree audit is active;
- b. all admission or other conditions, including unconditional admission status, have been met; and
- c. at least twelve semester credit hours of course work have been successfully completed.