Marketable Skills

Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's 60x30 Strategic Plan (<http://www.60x30tx.com/>) as, "Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities."

For the Master of Library Science

1. Apply professional ethics and competencies in acquiring, organizing, delivering, and preserving information and knowledge.
2. Demonstrate evidence-based practice in professional decision-making.
3. Deliver community-embedded services to promote equity and justice, and meet the needs of diverse constituencies.
4. Apply technologies to meet information needs in a variety of contexts.
5. Disseminate professional knowledge through venues such as teaching, research, publication, and service activities.
6. Plan for and engage in continuous, career-long professional development.

For the M.S. in Health Studies

1. Communicate and advocate for the improvement of health.
2. Assess health needs and recommend appropriate solutions.
