

SCHOOL OF HUMAN SCIENCES

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/human-sciences/>

Director: Aaron Norton, PhD, LMFT-S

Location: WH 115

Phone: 940-898-2685

E-mail: HDFSC@twu.edu

The School of Human Sciences is committed to excellence in transformational learning, discovery, and service in a collaborative environment that embraces diversity and social justice. We prepare students for academic, clinical, and professional opportunities serving individuals, children, families, and communities. The school builds engaged leaders and global citizens, honoring the interconnectedness and individuality of all people.

Graduate Degrees Offered

- M.S. in Child Development (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/child-development-ms/>) - The master's degree in Child Development prepares students for advanced careers working with children and families in various educational and community settings. The program is offered up to 100% online and in an accelerated format.
- M.S. in Child Life (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/child-life-ms/>) - The master's degree in Child Life prepares students for careers in both healthcare and community settings. Students who complete the academic and clinical requirements are eligible to pursue certification as Child Life Specialists. The program is offered fully online.
- M.S. in Family Studies (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/family-studies-ms/>) - The master's degree in Family Studies prepares students for advanced careers working with individuals and families, including family and human services, social services, and parent or family life education. The program is offered up to 100% online and in an accelerated format.
- M.S. in Counseling and Development (Clinical Mental Health Counseling) (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/counseling-development-clinical-mental-health-counseling-ms/>) or M.S. in Counseling and Development (Professional School Counseling) (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/counseling-development-professional-school-counseling-ms/>) - The master's degrees in Counseling and Development prepares students for careers in clinical mental health counseling or school counseling. Students who complete the academic and clinical requirements are eligible to pursue licensure as Licensed Professional Counselor or certification as a School Counselor.
- M.Ed. in School Counseling (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/school-counseling-med/>) - This program is being phased out and is no longer accepting students.
- M.S. in Marriage and Family Therapy (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/marriage-family-therapy-ms/>) The master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy prepares students for careers in marriage and family therapy. The program provides the academic requirements to pursue licensure as a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist.

- Ph.D. in Human Development and Family Studies (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/family-studies-phd/>) - The doctoral program in Human Development and Family Studies prepares students for advanced career options in family and social services, family life education, public policy, research, and higher education.
- Ph.D. in Marriage and Family Therapy (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/human-sciences/marriage-family-therapy-phd/>) - The doctoral program in Marriage and Family Therapy prepares students for advanced career options in family therapy, including clinical work, supervision, research, and higher education.
- Ph.D. in Child Development and Early Education (<https://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/education/early-childhood-education/child-development-early-education-phd/>) - This program is being phased out and is no longer accepting students.

Accreditation and Program Approvals

The M.S. in Counseling and Development is accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (<http://www.cacrep.org/>) (CACREP).

The M.S. in Marriage and Family Therapy and the Ph.D. in Marriage and Family Therapy are accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education (<https://www.coamfte.org/>) (COAMFTE).

The M.S. in Child Life is endorsed by the Association of Child Life Professionals (<https://www.childlife.org/>) (ACLP).

The M.S. in Family Studies, M.S. in Child Development, M.S. in Marriage and Family Therapy, Ph.D. in Human Development and Family Studies, and Ph.D. in Marriage and Family Therapy have all been approved by the National Council on Family Relations (<https://www.ncfr.org/>) (NCFR) as meeting the standards and criteria required for the provisional Certified Family Life Educator (<https://www.ncfr.org/cfle-certification/>) (CFLE) designation. Students should consult with their advisor for information about specific coursework requirements.