Marketable Skills

Marketable skills prepare students for success in a variety of professional settings. Developed through academic coursework, co-curricular engagement, and extracurricular involvement, these skills include communication, critical thinking, teamwork, ethical reasoning, adaptability, and digital literacy. Whether directly related to a student's major or serving as complementary strengths, marketable skills enhance career readiness and reflect TWU's commitment to producing graduates who are prepared to thrive in today's dynamic workforce.

1. Critique and select high-quality literature for children and young adults that reflects and responds to the needs of diverse communities
2. Facilitate the access and use of materials for children and young adults.
3. Collaborate with teachers and others who work with youth to integrate curriculum, resources, and teaching strategies.
