

MASTER OF EDUCATION IN READING EDUCATION

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/literacy-and-learning/graduate-programs/masters-in-reading-education/>

The Masters of Education in Reading Education degree (M.Ed.) includes required master's coursework with a digital professional portfolio as the capstone experience. Optional to this degree, upon completion of the coursework, graduate students may take the Texas All-Level (K-12) Reading Specialist Certification exam. If this optional certification is pursued, the TWU EPP Graduate Professional Certification Application must be completed prior to beginning the coursework.

- Reading Specialist certification requires two years of teaching experience.
- With the successful completion of M.Ed. coursework, the Department of Literacy and Learning will recommend applicants to take the Texas K-12 Reading Specialist exam.

Students holding a master's degree may take 18 semester credit hours of core coursework to be recommended for the Reading Specialist certificate.

Marketable Skills

Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's 60x30 Strategic Plan (<http://www.60x30tx.com/>) as, "Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities."

1. Evaluate theories and research about the processes and practices of literacy instruction.
2. Apply knowledge of a variety of instructional approaches, including technology, to create an environment that supports literacy learning.
3. Apply understandings of how diversity affects and enriches the literacy development of students.
4. Apply leadership skills that support communication and collaboration around issues related to literacy learning with the school, parents, and community.

Admissions

All students must meet the University requirements as outlined in the Admission to the TWU Graduate School (<http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/graduate-school/admission-graduate-school/>) section of the catalog.

This academic program may have additional admission criteria that must also be completed as outlined on the program's website.
