Graduate Degrees Offered

• M.Ed. in Educational Leadership (http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/teacher-education/educational-leadership-med)
• M.Ed. in Teaching, Learning, and Curriculum (http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/teacher-education/teaching-learning-curriculum-med)
• M.A.T. (Interdisciplinary) (http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/mat-graduate-interdisciplinary-degree)
• M.Ed. in Special Education (http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/teacher-education/special-education-med)
• Ph.D. in Special Education (http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/teacher-education/special-education-phd) (part of the Federation of North Texas Area Universities)

The Department of Teacher Education is comprised of four program areas, described below.

Curriculum and Instruction

The Curriculum and Instruction Program offers a master's degree in Teaching, Learning, and Curriculum (TLC). The M.Ed. in TLC is designed for practicing teachers or individuals seeking to improve their knowledge and application of evidence-based practices for careers in professional development or training. Classes include a variety of delivery options including fully online, blended, and face-to-face. The M.Ed. in TLC degree does not lead to initial teacher certification. Individuals who have a bachelor's degree interested in seeking initial Texas teacher certification, please refer to the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) degree. (http://catalog.twu.edu/graduate/professional-education/mat-graduate-interdisciplinary-degree)

Educational Leadership

The Educational Leadership Program prepares school administrators to lead in a diverse, fast-paced, and information-rich society through its M.Ed. in Educational Leadership, principal certification program (which can be done concurrently with the M.Ed. in Educational Leadership), and superintendent certification program. Graduates of the TWU Educational Leadership Program demonstrate the requisite skills, knowledge, and dispositions necessary for effective leadership; alumni hold leadership positions throughout the DFW metroplex and the state of Texas. Classes include a variety of delivery options including fully online, blended, and face-to-face.

Special Education

The Special Education Program offers degrees (i.e., an M.Ed. and Ph.D. in Special Education) that allow individuals to enhance their knowledge of research in special education, acquire knowledge and expertise in working with individuals with disabilities, and become master teachers. The Special Education Program also offers coursework leading to certification as an Educational Diagnostician (which can be done concurrently with the M.Ed. in Special Education or as a standalone certification program). Classes include a variety of delivery options including fully online, blended, and face-to-face.

Bilingual and English as a Second Language (ESL) Education

Graduate students in degree programs offered through the TWU Department of Teacher Education may take courses in the Bilingual/ESL Program. These graduate courses are designed to enhance educators' and administrators' practice and application of evidence-based strategies when working with students who are bilingual and students whose first language is not English. Classes include a variety of delivery options including fully online, blended, and face-to-face.

Certification Information

All professional certifications (i.e., Educational Diagnostician, Principal as Instructional Leader, Superintendent) are awarded by the State Board for Educator Certification (http://tea.texas.gov/index4.aspx?id=3461) (SBEC). Further information may be found on the Department of Teacher Education (https://twu.edu/teacher-education) and Office of Educator Preparation Services (http://www.twu.edu/teacher-certification) websites.

Post-baccalaureate and post-master's certification programs are possible through application to the Graduate School for certification only or non-degree status. Certificates are awarded by the State Board for Educator Certification. Contact the Department for information about current certificates. Requirements for certification programs may change based upon changes in requirements, policies or procedures of the State Board for Educator Certification (http://www.tea.state.tx.us/index4.aspx?id=3461).
