 Marketable Skills

Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's 60x30 Strategic Plan (http://www.60x30tx.com/) as, 'Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities.'

1. Creative problem-solving abilities using processes that result in efficient and sound solutions within a budget-conscious environment.
2. Strong, project-oriented time-management skills applied with respect and self-discipline in order to meet strict deadlines and achieve goals.
3. Adaptable and flexible to new ideas, concepts, challenges, and roles by having a goal-oriented approach to work and a willingness to accept new responsibilities.
4. Communicate confidently with team members with clear and thoughtful language through verbal, visual, and written communication.
