Marketable Skills

Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's 60x30 Strategic Plan (<https://reportcenter.highered.texas.gov/agency-publication/miscellaneous/theccb-60x30-strategic-plan/>) as, "Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities."

- a. Creative problem-solving abilities using processes that result in efficient and sound solutions within a budget-conscious environment.
- b. Strong, project-oriented time-management skills applied with respect and self-discipline to meet strict deadlines, and achieve goals.
- c. Adaptable and flexible to new ideas, concepts, challenges, and roles by having a goal-oriented approach to work and a willingness to accept new responsibilities.
- d. Communicate confidently with team members with clear and thoughtful language through verbal, visual, and written communication.
