

BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS IN ART (STUDIO ART)

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/visual-arts/undergraduate-programs/studio-art/>

Our undergraduate Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Studio Art is a flexible program that will allow you to explore all areas of art offered by the division. Course offerings include introductory, intermediate, and advanced classes in practical art making, art theory, and art history. This interdisciplinary degree allows students to draw from multiple disciplines while also focusing on a set of courses in one of three areas (3D Studies, Painting and Drawing, Photography) within Studio Art. Students learn traditional techniques while also exploring new technologies and approaches to art-making. This degree prepares students for careers in the arts and any other field where self-motivation, collaboration, verbal and visual articulation, and creativity are advantageous.
