

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN ART (ART HISTORY AND VISUAL CULTURE)

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/visual-arts/undergraduate-programs/>

Art History and Visual Culture will provide you with a broad liberal arts base and a strong foundation in the history of art and visual culture, combined with a practice-based understanding of visual arts through our studio art courses. Courses specializing in art history and visual culture will cover a variety of periods and topics, with special attention to the role of women artists and artists of color in the arts within local and global perspectives. This degree will lead to professional careers in art management and administration and prepare you for art history or museum studies graduate programs.
