Undergraduate Degrees Offered
• B.S. in Criminal Justice (http://catalog.twu.edu/undergraduate/arts-sciences/criminal-justice/criminal-justice-bs)

Undergraduate courses are regularly taught by faculty from the Departments of Sociology and Social Work and History/Government.

The Criminal Justice Program offers an undergraduate major leading to the Bachelor of Science degree. A minor in Criminal Justice is also offered. The criminal justice major provides students interested in the various aspects of criminal justice with a broad, general education with emphasis on the social sciences. Students become acquainted with the legal aspects, agencies, procedures, and operations of the criminal justice system including law enforcement, the judicial system, corrections, and social services. To help prepare for careers in the criminal justice system, students are encouraged to consider a wide range of internship opportunities offered in the program. Students are prepared to work in a variety of careers in the criminal justice system and in related occupations.

Transfer Students

Transfer students are welcome to complete their criminal justice major in this program. Special care has been taken to structure the curriculum to facilitate transfer of credit from all community college programs in Texas. All required courses for the major can now be completed online within a two year period.

Special Requirements

No grade lower than C can be counted as credit toward completion of a major in Criminal Justice. A course can be repeated for credit no more than twice – that is, taken a total of three times.

No more than three semester credit hours of Internship credit can be counted toward a major in Criminal Justice, and none can be counted toward a minor.

Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice

The major in Criminal Justice is interdisciplinary and social science based. Course offerings include Crime in America, Sociology of Deviance, Constitutional Law, Correctional Systems and Practices, Comparative Criminal Justice, and Women, Crime, and Justice. Opportunities for practical work experience are provided through internships and the University’s Cooperative Education program.

Completion of a B.S. degree with a major in Criminal Justice requires that the student meet all the university’s general requirements for the appropriate degree. The major in Criminal Justice consists of 54 semester credit hours as outlined below. A minor is optional and if elected, students are encouraged to consider such minors as accounting, business administration, computer science, economics, government, management, psychology or sociology. Elective semester credit hours are available to allow the student to pursue individual interests as well as to further strengthen career preparation.

For descriptions of required and elective courses, please see the Sociology and Social Work course descriptions and the History/Government course descriptions.

All applicants must meet the general undergraduate admission requirements (http://catalog.twu.edu/undergraduate/admission-information).
