 Marketable Skills
Defined by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's 60x30 Strategic Plan (http://www.60x30tx.com/) as, “Those skills valued by employers that can be applied in a variety of work settings, including interpersonal, cognitive, and applied skills areas. These skills can be either primary or complementary to a major and are acquired by students through education, including curricular, co-curricular, and extracurricular activities.”

1. Communicate effectively to diverse audiences using a range of media and technology.
2. Organize, synthesize, and evaluate the credibility of information, such as, but not limited to, a range of academic and non-academic sources, and use this knowledge to make ethical decisions.
3. Use effective research strategies to inform argument-driven projects.
