Policies

The following policies apply to all undergraduate students in the School of Health Promotion and Kinesiology:

- a. A minimum grade of C is required in all courses in the Health Studies and Kinesiology majors. If a student earns a grade of D or F in a Health Studies or Kinesiology course, the student must retake the course. A course in which a student earns a grade of less than C (D or F) may be repeated only once.
- b. A student who earns a grade of less than C (D or F) twice in the same Health Studies or Kinesiology course will be required to leave the School of Health Promotion and Kinesiology.
- c. Students receiving a grade of I, D, or F in a Health Studies or Kinesiology course may not progress to courses for which that course is a prerequisite.
- d. If the cumulative GPA drops below a 2.75, the student must raise it to 2.75 within the next two semesters of enrollment or they will be dismissed from the School of Health Promotion and Kinesiology.
- e. A student must have completed all coursework in the degree plan prior to enrolling in internship/student teaching. B.S. in Health Studies students must also complete the Health Studies Exit Exam prior to enrolling in internship.
