

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Web Site: <https://twu.edu/education/>

Director: Dr. Juan Araujo, Professor

Location: SH 214

Phone: 940-898-2246

E-Mail: schoolofeducation@twu.edu

The School of Education at Texas Woman's University (TWU) is dedicated to preparing students for impactful careers in education. With a diverse array of programs, TWU offers both undergraduate and graduate degrees aimed at fostering future educators who are well-equipped to meet the challenges of teaching in various environments.

Divisions

- Early Childhood Education (<https://catalog.twu.edu/undergraduate/professional-education/education/early-childhood-education/>)
- Literacy & Language (<https://catalog.twu.edu/undergraduate/professional-education/education/literacy-language/>)
- Teacher Education (<https://catalog.twu.edu/undergraduate/professional-education/education/teacher-education/>)

Educator Preparation Program

TWU's Educator Preparation Program supports students pursuing initial or professional certification at both undergraduate and graduate levels. The program emphasizes practical experience through clinical practice, ensuring that candidates are well-prepared for their roles as educators.

Resources and Support

The School of Education offers numerous resources to support student success, including:

- TExES Prep Center: A dedicated center that assists educator candidates in preparing for the Texas Examinations of Educator Standards (TExES).
- Office of Clinical Practices: Provides guidance and resources for students completing their clinical practice requirements.

Commitment to Community Impact

TWU is committed to making a positive difference in the public and private education sectors. Graduates from the School of Education are recognized for their contributions to their communities, demonstrating the university's mission to cultivate effective and compassionate educators.

The School of Education emphasizes the importance of building a supportive and engaging learning environment for all students, and the school continues to foster a culture of excellence and innovation in education.

The School of Education at Texas Woman's University stands out for its comprehensive offerings, dedicated faculty, and commitment to preparing the next generation of educators. With programs designed to cater to various educational paths, TWU remains a leader in educator preparation in Texas and beyond.